

CELESTINE
LOVE & SHARE

Celestine is a new endeavour whose mission, and passion, is to produce, not luxury goods, but limited greats. Each item conceived, considered and crafted to be the ultimate manifestation of its class. Items to love and share. Celestine is a series of love letters in product form fashioned from quality materials sourced from around the world.

Unique as a fingerprint.
Elegant, refined and practical.
And just as versatile.
Growing ever richer with age.
Leather moulds itself to the stories we create for it.
Enriching our journey through touch and sight and smell.

LEATHER

An idea worth keeping deserves a material fitting of that worth.
For hundreds of years humankind has entrusted paper to that task.
A plain page is the promise of infinite possibilities and zero prejudice.
Its weight: the confidence to 'hold that thought'.
Its texture: the rhythm of elegantly woven fibres.
Tactile, fragile, flexible and durable, paper is our humblest, most loyal servant.

PAPER

There's a place carved in our hearts
for those grains beneath the bark.
Natural. Living. Individual.
This pleasing material adds a welcome warmth to our lives.
And grows with us beyond the rings that mark the years that pass.

WOOD

Clean, pure, precise and reassuring.
The uncompromising strength of steel.
The unequalled allure of gold.
Metal has us hooked.
Spellbound by its unyielding nature.
And caught in its profound reflections.
The foundations of human civilisation itself.

METAL

Spun by worms and fashioned for kings.
Elegant, sensual, soft and strong.
The best thing next to skin.
This majestic, mystical, mercurial material
Has a thread of heritage a thousand years old, and inspired a road in its name a thousand miles long.

SILK

The stories that canvas can hold!

Preserving every memory faithfully beyond the fleeting vagaries of fashion.

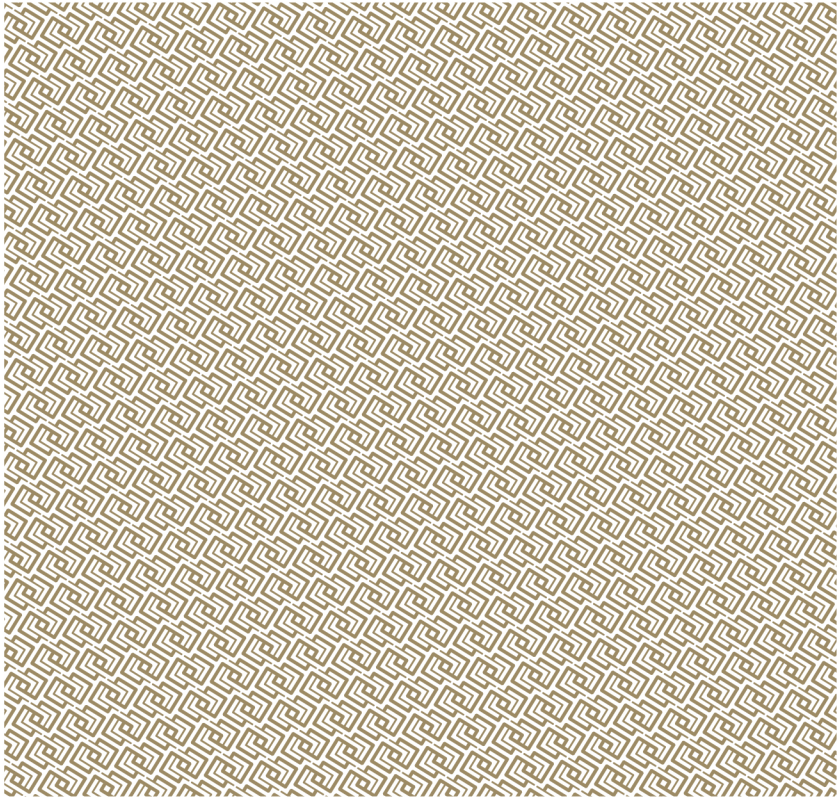

Timeless, immutable and strong.

Simple and unassuming.

A comforting strength and resourcefulness, woven from nature herself.

Perfect for all occasions and places. And never, ever out of time.
