

Sweet Auburn Seafood Kicks Off Aroma Mondays

Atlanta, Georgia (March 16, 2015) - Sweet Auburn Seafood Celebrity Chef Sammy Davis partners with Wine Connoisseur Jaye Price of the Wine Shoe Atlanta to host Aroma Mondays - an evening of people, preparation, and presentations.

Aroma Mondays is a wine tasting event with simultaneous cooking demonstrations. Throughout the evening, guest's sample the nights featured wines selected by Jaye Price while dining on complimentary food pairings created by Chef Sammy Davis.

When asked about the name 'Aroma Mondays', Chef Sammy responds "Every Chef knows to appreciate the experience of good food and flavorful wine, it all begins with the sense of smell, hence Aroma Mondays! I want my dinner guests to begin enjoying my food even before it reaches their lips. Filling the lounge with exotic aromas generates fascinating chat ranging from family recipes to world travels."

The weekly Monday night event begins at 7:00 p.m. and features 3 distinctive wines accompanied with tapas costing $20 per person. The tasting event wraps about 10:00 p.m. with a live band with greater opportunity for cocktails, conversation, and connections. Spacing is limited, rsvp is strongly encouraged for large parties. About Sweet Auburn Seafood

Owner Paul G. Williams, opened Sweet Auburn Seafood restaurant doors in October 2014 in hopes of his business playing an active role in revitalizing the Sweet Auburn Historic District! However, he realizes he can't do this alone. "Join us for Aroma Mondays where you will meet new people, delight in unmatched skilled food preparation, and engage in enlightening conversation during the wine presentations!", is Williams call to action to other locals. Sweet Auburn Seafood is located at 171 Auburn Road, NE Atlanta, GA 30303
